What is the GAMESENSE INFO CENTER?

GameSense Info Centers are located on-site at all Massachusetts casinos. There, patrons can learn about myths associated with gambling, the odds of the games they are playing, take a break, and seek support from a GameSense Advisor.

The GameSense Info Centers are staffed 16 hours, 7 days a week by knowledgeable and helpful GameSense Advisors, who can answer most gambling-related questions, and help you find additional support when it's needed. We invite all casino patrons to visit a Gamesense Info Center to learn about:

- Tips to help keep gambling fun
- The odds of winning and losing
- How different games work
- How randomness influences outcomes
- What "house advantage" means, and how it impacts what you can expect to lose or win
- Confronting the many myths about gambling
- Ways to set and stick to a budget

Know the Warning Signs

The signs below may indicate a problem. The more signs a person shows, the greater the likelihood that he or she may have lost control of their gambling.

- Gambling for longer and longer periods of time
- Lying about how much or how often they gamble
- Missing work or school to gamble
- Neglecting personal or family responsibilities to gamble
- Using gambling as an escape
- Gambling with money needed for paying bills
- Spending more money to recoup losses

Finding Support

There are steps you can take if you or someone you care about would like more information or support. The 24-hour confidential Massachusetts Council on Compulsive Gambling Help Line at 1-800-426-1234 is available for support and referral services.

Voluntary Self-Exclusion

Sometimes gambling stops feeling like a game. If you feel this way or find yourself gambling too much, the Voluntary Self-Exclusion Program may be right for you. When a person enrolls, they choose a period of time to exclude themselves from all Massachusetts casinos. Talk to a GameSense Advisor for more information, or visit gamesensema.com/vse.
